Admiral Jerauld Wright

Dear Jerry:

A son of an old friend of mine, Baldwin Maull, Jr., is being assigned to the District Intelligence Office, Fifth Naval District. He is a bright lad with a fine scholastic background and knowledge of languages and wants to get a real chance in the intelligence field. I would appreciate anything you could do to help him in this respect.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

Thank you for your letter to Admiral Wright. The admiral invited me to a reception a few weeks ago and I certainly enjoyed meeting him and talking to him. Thank you again for your interest in me.

Sincerely,

Baldwin Maubl Jr.
